

KID Legend says the Chartreux cat got its name from the Carthusian monastery, the Grand Chartreuse, in France. Another theory is that it was named after a type of wool, pile de Chartreux, imported from Spain because of its thick, woolly coat.